A SHORT HISTORY OF FLOWERS: THE STORIES THAT MAKE OUR GARDENS

ROYAL GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY

This lecture includes tales of exploration, unrequited but also enduring love, botanical piracy and excessive hybridisation bringing these beautiful flowers to life. From the flamboyant bougainvillea, collected in Rio de Janeiro by an 18th century female botanist in disguise to the deliciously scented stock which made a journey across France bearable for a 19th century traveller. These flowers have played pivotal roles in our societies across the world, from boom to bust economies, the Fuchsia hedgerows of Ireland as well as making bold fashion statements, these unassuming blooms hold treasure troves of stories.

Advolly Richmond is a garden historian, TV and radio presenter and independent researcher in gardens, landscapes, plants and social history. A regular contributor on BBC Gardeners' World as well as on BBC Gardeners' Question Time, she is also the presenter of The Garden History Podcast, an A-Z.

SATURDAY 27TH APRIL

SHAKESPEARE AT THE STONE, 11AM

Come and join Stamford Poets at the Stamford Poetry Stone as they celebrate the birthday of William Shakespeare as part of Verse Festival.

Free | St Michael's Churchyard

PAGE TO STAGE: ASH DICKINSON, 2PM

Join professional poet Ash Dickinson ('Impressive wordplay' – The Times, 'Clever and funny' – The Scotsman) for a workshop designed in bringing your work to life. Poetry as a live and aloud force. There will be opportunity to write, opportunity to read, opportunity to perform. For those who'd like to write poetry and share it, here's an opportunity to transform.

Ash Dickinson has been full-time as a poet since 2008 and is in great demands to run writing workshops in schools, galleries, museums, prisons and with writing groups. His debut collection, 'Slinky Espadrilles', was the very first title published by Burning Eye Books.

£10 standard | Stamford Arts Centre Ballroom

LUKE WRIGHT'S SILVER JUBILEE, 7:30pm

Crack out the bunting! It's Luke Wright's Silver Jubilee.

Over twenty-five years, Luke Wright has built up a reputation for being one of Britain's most popular live poets. He has won an unprecedented four Saboteur Awards (national awards for spoken word), a Stage Award, and a Fringe First.

This show is an excavation of lives lived and not lived. Wright navigates his audience through a warm and honest hour of poems and stand-up, with the directness and pathos that has made him one of the most popular live poets in England. With some wild experiments in form, a nervous kitten called Sir John Betjeman and a healthy smattering of drum n bass, Wright manages to navigate some heart-wrenching material and keep the laughs coming.

£15 standard | Stamford Arts Centre Theatre
