MEMOIR OF A SNAIL (15)

Dir: Adam Elliot | Australia | 2024 | 94 mins

Voice cast | Sarah Snook, Kodi Smit-McPhee, Eric Bana, Nick Cave

Oscar-winning director Adam Elliot's (Mary and Max) latest 'clayography' is a funny, moving and resonant stop-motion triumph. Full of Elliot's distinctive wit, Memoir of a Snail is a poignant and offbeat joy. A bittersweet memoir of a melancholic woman called Grace Pudel - a hoarder of snails, romance novels, and guinea pigs.

THE DAWN OF IMPRESSIONISM: PARIS 1874 - EXHIBITION ON SCREEN

Dir: Ali Ray | 90 mins

The Impressionists are the most popular group in art history – millions flock every year to marvel at their masterpieces. But, to begin with, they were scorned, penniless outsiders. 1874 was the year that changed everything; the first Impressionists, “hungry for independence”, broke the mould by holding their own exhibition outside official channels. Impressionism was born and the art world was changed forever.

ERNEST COLE: LOST AND FOUND (15)

Dir: Raoul Peck | USA, France | 2024 | 106 mins | Documentary

Following a UK exhibition of South African photographer's Ernest Cole's ground-breaking photobook House of Bondage – one of the most significant photographic works of the 20th century, which exposed the inhumanity and injustice of South African apartheid to the world – Oscar-nominated director Raoul Peck's (I Am Not Your Negro) new documentary takes his story to film. Narrated by actor LaKeith Stanfield, Ernest Cole: Lost and Found is filled with images of the acutely painful photographs Cole risked his life to take; psychological portraits of existence within a brutal caste system, its misery, violence and indignity.
